

Spanish for Life Policies

Attendance: Students are required to stay for the duration of the class. They should notify the instructor if they will be late to class or need to leave early due to another appointment. The class will start on time and end on time.

Absences: If a student is absent for part or an entire day, they can join us and continue on with the class. There are no make-up sessions available.

Transportation: The students must arrange for their own transportation to and from class.

Dismissal: Students are no longer under the supervision of Spanish For Life, LLC once the class has been dismissed.

Break/ Lunch: Students will have a small break and a 40 min lunch. There are several fast food places nearby to purchase their lunches. Students are free to leave the building and use their own transportation to and from these restaurants. Spanish for Life is not responsible for the students' behavior, safety or whereabouts during this time.

Payment: This course cannot be pro-rated for missing various days. The registration is non-refundable, and must be paid in full before the first day of class.

Behavior: Students who sign up for this course are highly motivated and excited to learn. SFL provides a fun, safe and stimulating environment for learning. In the event that a student cannot participate in the class because of reoccurring disruptive behavior, the parent/s will be notified and the student will not continue in the class. No refund will be available.

I agree to the above policies of Spanish for Life, LLC.
