

About Your Spanish Teacher...

Holly Venegas is a masterful teacher.

She was born to teach! Holly is careful to understand her students and cater to their learning styles. People who learn Spanish from her use it immediately and continue to learn at a rapid pace. She is easy to learn from because she has a systematic approach that is FUN and based on the most recent brain research on natural language learning.

Holly has had over 15 years of successfully teaching Spanish.

She has taught children, youth and adults who have been first time learners, or had difficulty learning languages in the past. Holly specializes in teaching busy adults who need to learn Spanish for their jobs, travel needs or personal relationships. She teaches at her language school as well as on sight at businesses.

Holly's professional credentials are impressive.

She graduated from a total immersion literature program with her BA in Spanish. She completed her MA in Curriculum and Instruction. She is a Colorado State Certified Teacher and has traveled extensively throughout Costa Rica.

Holly's philosophy includes: FUN, PRACTICE, IMMERSION and REPETITION.

Don't be surprised to be surrounded by a tropical forest, tap your foot to Latin rhythms, or try some zesty cuisine while you converse in Spanish. Native speakers enhance student's learning and build their confidence to speak. Holly uses methods such as: story telling, art presentations, mysteries, recommended excursions, and games...Yes, even for adults!

Holly is a tremendous motivator.

Research confirms that we learn best if our emotions are attached to the content. Holly brings enthusiasm, real life experiences, culture and an appetite for learning to each class. She engages students with their own personal interests, and materials that are progressive and fun. She also focuses on helping students identify their goals and reach them. Holly motivates students through one successful conversation after another.

The most successful students are not perfect! They are...

- Patient with him or herself and others.
- Willing to take risks speaking Spanish.
- Committed to the process and they practice daily.
- Open to understanding and accepting cultural differences.
- Eager to learn and use Spanish in daily life: work, relationships, travels, volunteering, etc...
